Class Poem

School days all ended-
School work all done-
Many things intended
That were never begun.

Five days a week
We were taught in our school,
To learn, practice, and study
The good-golden rule.

Deep down in our hearts
Lies a space kept for memories-
A secret imparted-
Some tender amenities.

Memories of classmates,
Dear teachers, and friends,
Memories of old traits,
Though our years here now end.

Good-bye, dear Preston High,
We love your old halls.
Our thoughts will return
To your dear hallowed walls.

You prepared us for work-
You prepared us for play .
May your love and devotion
Guide us day after day.

EVA PORTER

Remember—

When Judy Giles couldn't see because she had her ears plugged.
When Miss Kuzmack wasn't asking for "Shucks," Art Haynes.
When Milo Springer wasn't in New Jersey.
When Eva Porter dropped the button in Coach's milk with Judy Giles' help.
The night Mary Kulikowski forgot the first basketball game.
When Rodney Deshack got twitterpated.
When Joan got her diamond.
When Jeanene's boyfriend came to school.
Martha's crush on Pleasant Mount.
When Art Spangenburg was a preacher.
When Art Haynes came to school three days in a row.
When David Upright lost his class ring.
When Frank Nowogorski wasn't arguing with Coach.
When DeWayne Geer wasn't sleeping.
When Mary Anne Szczepanski ran out of gas.
When Marie Banicky wasn't going steady.
When Alan Llewellyn wasn't "helping out."
When Mary Lou Piesecki almost missed the Drama.
When Janet Holbert wasn't looking for a certain Ford.
When Patricia Matoushek wasn't talking about Pete and Archbald.
When Wilson Baldwin wasn't flirting.
The third act and page 52.
When the boys pounded nails in the library table for the prom.
When Frank Nowogorski didn't feel well during Drama practice.
When Marie Banicky got along with Miss Kuzmack.
Sleeping in English class.
When Mary Kulikowski flipped her lid over "Woody."
When the boys were expelled from school.
When Janet fainted while riding in a car.
Working on the Yearbook.
When the bus broke down on the way to Harrisburg.
When the Senior girls challenged the 7th. and 8th. grade boys to a basketball game. Who won?
